November 6th—14th, 2010

(SOLD OUT)

The British Virgin Islands are volcanic outcrops of a vast underwater plateau that stretches for more than 70 miles, where the Caribbean meets the Atlantic. 60 smaller islands form a protective ring around the crystal-clear aquamarine water. Visibility averages 100+ feet, with countless reefs, underwater caves, lava tunnels, canyons. Not to mention all of the marine life. Makes for a beautiful underwater exploration. You will be sailing on the Cuan Law through the British Virgin Islands, the Cuan Law is a 105' Trimaran, making it the largest in the world. Sailing from Island to Island with the wind in you hair, you will enjoy unlimited diving & fine food.

Trip Includes

- R/T airfare from Albuquerque.
- 2 overnights in St Thomas
- 7 days on the Cuan Law
- All meals & beverages (optional open bar)
- 6 days of Unlimited diving
