

Utila (Honduras, Bay Island)

January 29th—February 5th, 2011

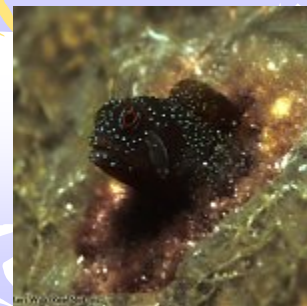

Utila, is the smallest of the Bay Islands, but offers a large variety of dive sights. It sits at the edge of the largest barrier reef in the Western Hemisphere. With crystal blue waters that host over 90% of marine critters, including Whale Sharks, Manta Rays & much more. All rooms are spacious with air conditioning, open air decks and ocean views (not your typical 4 walls and a bed). A dive destination you will never forget.
